Mayor Bickers reported on the success of the annual Louisville Community Cleanup held on Saturday, April 09 this year. Over 80 volunteers attended the event. Trash pickup along Town roads totaled 1,840 pounds. Numerous parents with children attended on a beautiful, cool spring morning. Special thanks to Kay Swicegood for organizing the event again this year. Kay always does an outstanding job on this event, as she has done for the last seven years..

Mayor Bickers communicated that a joint workshop, including the DRC, PC and BMA, is being planned. The workshop will review the Design Review Guidelines and also develop a template of what the Town envisions for commercial development along Topside and Louisville Roads. Linda Webb is working on a suitable date for the workshop.

Mayor Bickers reminded everyone that the Dockside Grill will open today, April 12. The grill will be under new management this year and all are encouraged to stop by and check out the menu.

Citizens Comments: Bruce Icenhower encouraged the Town to seek a major grocery store to locate here, such as Engles.
